There are many problems with the Electoral College. First, small states are over-represented in the Electoral College. Second, the state by state set-up of the college, in the modern era, leads to states that are safe wins for one party, leaving a handful of states that get all the attention.

Chapter 11, Section 2 The Constitution places four limits on Congress's use of the commerce power: (1) Congress cannot tax exports. (2) Congress cannot favor the ports of one State over those of any other in the regulation of trade.
