Change: Eight Lectures on the I Ching by Hellmut Wilhelm ...

If we turn now to the concept of change which has given the I Ching its name and which determines its system of thought, we are immediately reminded of the aphorism panta rhei, "everything flows," used by Heraclitus of Ephesus around the year 500 b.c. as the foundation of his own philosophical system. This was about the time when the I Ching also took shape, and we have here one of those ...

Lecture 8: The War of 1812 . This lecture deals with a short war that is little discussed—the War of 1812. About the only glimpse most modern Americans have is the one provided by the Johnny Horton song about the Battle of New Orleans. In fact, the fight was not so glorious.
