Where does You Were Mine rank among all the audiobooks you've listened to so far? It was a good book to listen too! What was one of the most memorable moments of You Were Mine? It was good to see how Bethie was able to come to terms with Chase's death, she was able to get out of her depression.

"Yes. Much better. She's at least three inches taller. Not such a massive gap," the lady said as she looked at Bethy. "Thad, you will be escorting Braden. And Tripp, you will be escorting Bethy. Now, for your positions," she said, walking off with her back straight, pointing and barking commands at everyone in her wake.

Now he was gone, and both of our worlds were thrown off-balance. Because I couldn't stand back anymore. No one was protecting her. No one was holding her, but she wouldn't fucking let me near her. She wasn't going to let me fix the past. I'd severed any hope of that when I'd driven away and left her with no other choice but to be with Jace.
