Inés of My Soul is a daring novel, grand on any scale. Daring, because the writer has courageously confronted one of the bloodiest periods in South American history, taking sides neither with the conquistadors nor with the indigenous people; grand, because it is a vastly researched historical fiction as well as being a love story.

Ines of My Soul- Book Review - EzineArticles

Ines is a heroine to truly admire. She was not perfect, but this story chronicles how she made the best out of many awful circumstances she found herself in. She was a survivor in every sense of the word. This story has everything, love, romance, friendship, abandonment, courage, determination, injustice, horror, violence, you name it.
