This newly established 12 tribes (disciples) will usher in the knowledge of God and His Son through the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Messiah. For this reason it was so important for the 12 to be with Jesus continually, learning from him as he equipped them to later bring his message to Israel, and to the furthest reaches of the earth.

All these men believed what Jesus said and followed His example. They helped Jesus tell others about God - they were fishers of men. These are the names of the twelve disciples: Simon (who Jesus liked to call Peter, which means rock), his brother Andrew; brothers James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James and Thaddaeus; Simon and Judas Iscariot, who ...

Jesus Chooses His First Disciples - One day Jesus was standing by the Sea of Galilee. The people crowded around him and listened to the word of God. Jesus saw two boats at the edge of the water. They had been left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. He got into the boat that belonged to Simon. Jesus asked him to go out a little way from shore. Then he sat down in the boat and ...

Jesus Picks His Disciples. It seems likely that Jesus picked 12 followers during his lifetime. The gospels don't explain why Jesus picked these particular guys, and they don't agree about how early in the movement's history they became the core group. But nevertheless, the gospels of Mark and John, which are independent witnesses to the historical Jesus, refer frequently to "the Twelve" (Mark 9:35; 10:32; 11:11; John 6:67-71; 20:24).
