Showboat World is solid adventure in a well-realized and vividly described world by one of the masters of science fiction and fantasy, Jack Vance. Although this novel takes place in the future on a colonized planet, the plot and society is solidly in the realm of fantasy. The tone throughout is light-hearted and witty and the ending highly contrived.

Showboat World was first published in 1975. In 1983 it was reissued under the title Showboat World: The Magnificent Showboats of the Lower Vissel River, Lune XXIII South, Big Planet. In 2011 it was issued as an e-book under the title The Magnificent Showboats. My copy is 217 pages long.
