The Chronicle of Pseudo-Zachariah Rhetor is the first translation of this seminal text to a modern language in over one hundred years, and the new edition benefits from improvements in Syriac lexicography and expanded research on the source. Contributions from two eminent Syriac scholars—Sebastian P. Brock and Witold Witakowski—and a detailed commentary further enhance the value of this book, as does the substantial bibliography.

The Chronicle Of Pseudo Zachariah

This is the record of both ecclesiastical and military history of the Eastern Roman empire from the Council at Chalcedon (A.D. 451) and the death of Justinian I (A.D. 565) The Pseudo-Zachariah was himself a compiler of materials, the largest of which is a semi-Monophysite ecclesiastical history written by Bishop Zachariah.
