EEA - FRIEDMAN WILSON

This book provides a comprehensive account of the travels of Icelandic pastor Ólafur Egilsson, from the moment he was taken captive by barbary corsairs in 1627, and culminating in his return home to the Westman Islands in 1628. Ólafur's original travel journals have been translated into English for the first time, and his descriptions are vivid at times.

Reverend Olafur wrote The Travels to chronicle his experiences both as a captive and as a traveler across Europe (he journeyed alone from Algiers to Copenhagen in an attempt to raise funds to ransom the Icelandic captives who remained behind). He was a keen observer, and the narrative is filled with a wealth of detail - social, political, economic, religious - about both the Maghreb and Europe.
