Drawing upon Howard Lashner's more than two decades of success in the financial services industry, 10 Common Mistakes Financial Advisors Make & Simple Ideas to Avoid Them demonstrates that what many advisors consider standard operating procedures are really missed opportunities to build better, longer-lasting client relationships. Using real-world client experiences, as well as his own, Lashner focuses on eliminating mistakes that keep financial advisors from delivering the highest-level client experience possible, and from expanding their business and client roster. The result is his philosophy on how to work with clients, and a plan of action you can implement to create a personalized client experience. Ever noticed a digital watch in a historical film? Or seen a camera crew in a mirror? There's nothing we like more than finding a continuity error, a historical inaccuracy or a technical blunder. This third edition of the bestselling Movie Mistakes brings you over a thousand slip-ups to look out for.

An illuminating critique of modern thought from America's "Philosopher for Everyman" (Time). Ten Philosophical Mistakes examines ten errors in modern thought and shows how they have led to serious consequences in our everyday lives. Approach project management from a new perspective: by exploring what NOT to do. Learn the 10 most common mistakes project managers make and how to avoid them. Jim Griffith and Bill Easum draw from decades of personal experience in planting new churches and consulting with supervisors and planters in new church starts. They have condensed their vast experiences down to ten points that account for the great majority of failures among church planters. For each point, the authors provide examples of the particular mistake and ways to avoid it. They speak in special sections to coaches and supervisors, showing them how to work with church planters to avoid the mistakes. The ten mistakes point in most cases to plans made on the basis of past experiences or unrealistic models that do not fit either the particular church planter or the mission field where the church is planned. the church planter must take the initiative to do God's work as directed by the Holy Spirit, not copy a religious superstar's methods or approach the works as defined by outside sources.

Are you making these mistakes when socializing? Marilyn Monroe proved that one does not have to have an air about them to be charismatic. She was walking with a photographer and magazine editor towards the Grand Central

Terminus deep in conversation. It was a busy day and the terminus was packed with people, and nobody had the time to look at her. As the photographer clicked the camera, she boarded the train and sat in the corner of a car. Marilyn wanted to show the magazine editor that she could either choose to be plain Norma Jean Baker or glamorous Marilyn Monroe just by deciding. She was Norma Jean on the subway, but when she reached the sidewalks of New York, she chose to be Marilyn. She turned to the photographer and asked him if he would like to see Marilyn. All she did was turn around, fluff her hair and strike a pose, and she turned into the glamorous Marilyn Monroe. A spark rippled out of her and she became magnetic. The people walking past her stopped in their tracks and recognized that a star was in their midst. In an instant, fans engulfed Marilyn and it took some time for the photographer to protect her from the crowd. Marilyn knew that charisma is something you can turn on and off. And even if you're making all the mistakes inside, the short simple guide will show you how to fix them. The #1 charisma myth everyone believes, and why it's false Introverts can't be charismatic - think again The real truth about charisma At a party someone - here's what not to do when introducing them Charisma secrets from a 300 year old novel The Dale Carnegie method (taught to millions) to be instantly memorable 5 conversation tips you can use to talk to anyone So if you want to be someone with a "magnetic presence" Where people are actually excited to talk to you...
